MOVEMENT CONFERENCE

HOST HOME INFORMATION

TO OUR HOST HOMES,

I am so grateful for you! There are no words to describe the impact you are making at this very moment. This weekend students will be saved, called, changed, and experience revelation like never before. I believe that you have been called for such a time as this. I praise God every day for sending YOU to fpStudents. I am truly thankful for you, the sacrifices you have made to serve and for the gifts you are giving to change the world, one student at a time.

Father,

We come together as one heart – I am asking you God for a fresh revelation of our calling in you. Thank you for sending your Son to make a way for us. We come to you praying for boldness to light the way. Thank You God for how You're going to move, save, redeem, restore and deliver. We ask right now for a hedge of protection over each home. We are confident that You are going to move in living rooms, dining rooms, bedroom floors and porches. We beg for Your intervention and surrender right now to the work You have planned. I ask that You return to those who are sacrificing ten-fold the blessing they are pouring out for this weekend. Father, I ask a special blessing over families while they are apart and while their homes and routines are disrupted, and I know that a supernatural provision for their families is ahead. I speak a spirit of protection over each leader and student and bind the enemy in the powerful name of Jesus – confident that there is nothing that can overcome Your church and Your will. Thank you, God, for creating them for such a time as this – we know we are not here by accident, but by divine appointment. Thank You for the harvest that is coming and for allowing us into your presence.

Believing You for a powerful move!

Amen

love you so much and can't thank you enough for taking time to pour into the next generation! We COULD NOT succeed without YOU!!

Your Global Student Pastor,

Zac Stephen

Guidelines for Host Home Families

- 1. Try to provide a separate place in your home for the leader to sleep, separate from the students. This will help him or her to be fresh for leading the group.
- 2. The students will bring sleeping bags, so don't try to provide them all with a bed. All homes will be the same gender and same grade, with their official small group leader or leaders.
- 3. At the onset, help the group understand your expectations clearly while in your home. Specifically, tell them where they may eat, which bathrooms are to be used by whom, areas of the house that are off limits, and any other house rules that you wish to enforce. Also be sure that you go over these rules with the group leader. It's a good idea to have a home meeting right at the beginning once everyone arrives.
- 4. You are responsible for helping with discipline in your home. It will be very difficult for the group leader to be effective if he or she must be the primary disciplinarian. Encourage the students to go to bed. They love to stay up, but it is extremely important that they are alert for the Conference Sessions.
- 5. You may participate in as many of the Conference Sessions as you wish, please talk to your group leader for more details. This will help you feel part of the experience.
- 6. Leaders are responsible for getting your students to and from events, if transportation is an issue and they are needing help, they may reach out and ask if your available.
- 6. Be in prayer for the Movement small group leader and the group of students who will be in your home.
- 7. If you provide transportation, please do not allow students to take luggage into the church. They will come to the car after service to get their belongings with their parents.
- 8. The leaders will find out medical concerns and medications needed at the onset of Conference. If you would, please help make sure that all students take any medication they are prescribed for the weekend.
- 9. Lock up any guns, knives, or weapons before the students arrive.
